

Awaking Pharaoh Tutankhamun

By Jennifer

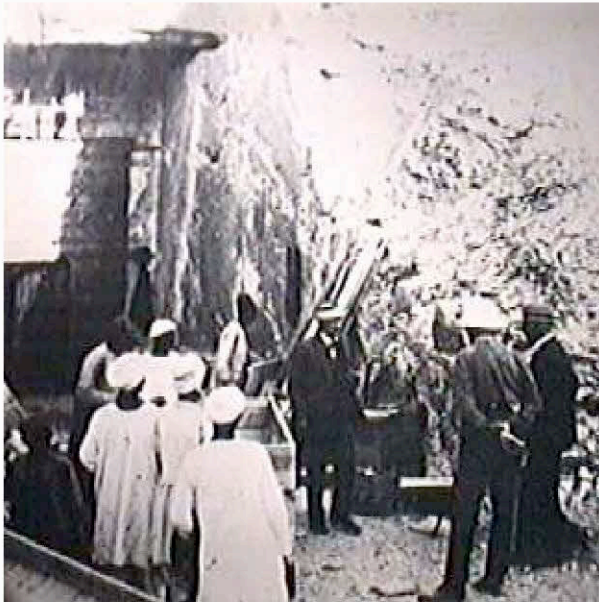

Today the tomb of an ancient Egyptian Pharaoh has been unearthed by Howard Carter in the Valley of the Kings.

Howard Carter entered the tomb down a staircase discovered just a couple of days ago. He passed a door with a carved curse on it: "Death Shall Come on Swift Wings To Him Who Disturbs the Peace of the King". He then made his way through a passage in where he read the name of the buried ruler on the wall. It said, "Tutankhamun's".

Howard Carter is an enthusiastic archaeologist who hoped to find a tomb in the Valley of the Kings that is known as the burial site for rulers of Ancient Egypt. Luckily, he followed his dream and insisted on digging further when his patron Lord Carnarvon wanted to give up.

Howard then entered a small antechamber and was amazed by so many priceless treasures left for the Pharaoh to use in the afterlife. Next in the Burial chamber he found a sarcophagus with three gold coffins inside each other and we believe that the innermost one holds the body of the Pharaoh..
